Port Highlights:

LOS ANGELES - Highlights of "The City of Angels" include such landmarks as Rodeo Drive, the sunset Strip and Mann's Chinese theatre.

PUERTO VALLARTA, MEXICO - Explore this quaint Mexican fishing village from its cobblestone lanes, red-tiled roofs and palm-covered hills. Spend the afternoon at Bahia de las Banderas with its glistening blue waters and powdery beaches. Or travel just outside the city for peaceful coves and jungles of pines and palms.

MAZATLAN, MEXICO - Few Mexican destinations are as tranquil as Mazatlan, where it's perfectly acceptable to find your spot on the sand, order a cocktail and simply relax as waves roll in. For more adventure, head into the heart of Old Mazatlan with its beautifully restored cathedrals and sidewalk cafes.

CABO SAN LUCAS, MEXICO - Located on the southernmost tip of Baja California, Cabo San Lucas is home to some of the best sport-fishing in the world. Explore waters teeming with marine life on a snorkel, dive or kayak adventure. Or indulge in a short boat trip to see the majestic rock arches, Los Arcos.

The Mariner of the Seas:

Comments from a prior cruiser - Whether your cruise on Mariner of the Seas is your first-ever Voyager-class experience, or you're a veteran, there's nothing routine on this ship. Balconies on this ship are built outside the vessel's superstructure rather than inside. The difference? Balconies are less cave-like, more light-filled, which also translates into airier cabins, as well. Service is consistently outstanding -- from cabin stewards to wait staff at the alternative restaurants to the really fabulous (and high energy) "kids" who sing, dance and serve burgers at Johnny Rockets. Onboard crew remember names, preferences, and go out of their way to accommodate special requests. What was fun about discovering Mariner was that you could pretty much divide the ship into neighborhoods, such as the promenade and the sports & recreation area. Another reason: activities, whether during sea days or in the post-dinner evening hours, were so well scheduled and organized that it kept passengers spread out on all parts of the ship. We never really felt crowded.
