

Join fellow Midwestern travelers on this fun and exciting experience of our nation's capital. It's filled with history and the best of memorials and monuments. Your specially selected hotel is right in the middle of things providing unmatched quality and value.

WASHINGTON WEEK

September 5/11, 2009

A PERSONAL INVITATION:

Please join us on this exciting travel experience in our nation's capital and its historically significant surrounding areas. It will be another "Classic" adventure in the format successfully pioneered by Please Go Away™ Vacations. You unpack and pack only once. It is going to be a great learning experience for everyone, including children and grandchildren.

The "Classic" concept includes transportation to and from your home area with a single high quality strategically located hotel being used throughout the entire stay.

Each day will be different with all the major attractions being visited during the week. To provide the most thorough experience possible public transportation and tour motor coaches will be used to transport our select group while in Washington. You will "never" be required to do something "on your own". However, if you prefer to "do your own thing" such as visiting family, attending a special theatre performance, or enjoying a private dinner we will certainly have no objection.

Washington is truly one of the world's great cities. You will come home with a greater appreciation of its unmatched beauty and its place in past and current happenings of significance. The historically rich nearby areas will also be thoroughly experienced.
